Call for Films for the section “Local Heroes” of the Rügen International Film Festival 2017

Submit your film!

The Rügen International Film Festival introduces the films from the Baltic Sea region countries and aims to present the cinema of high-artistic value with the audience appeal. A diverse festival program includes Competition, Special sections and retrospectives and screens international cinema and current local and regional production.

The Rügen International Festival is delighted to open the call for films for the Section “Local Heroes” and to invite the filmmakers to submit their films. The Section puts Pomeranian region in focus and aims to present the diversity and uniqueness of the region. Let the festival audience discover the Pomeranian identity through long-feature or short fiction films, documentaries or TV-productions that provide the insight onto the manifold culture along the German and Polish coast.

The festival takes place from 4th to 8th of October, 2017.

The deadline for submissions is July 15th, 2017.

The registration is free.

Requirements for section “Local Heroes”:

- the films must have been produced after January 1st, 2014;
- the films must be unreleased in German cinemas;
- only the films associated with the Pomeranian Region will be eligible for the Section. The affiliation is defined by one or more of the following criteria:
 - the filmmaker must originally stem from the Region,
 - the film must be produced in the Region or
 - the film must be thematically related to the Region.

To submit the film, the following material must be provided:

- a fully completed registration form;
- the director’s brief biography, portrait photo and complete filmography;
- the film's synopsis and full list of attended festivals and awards;
- film preview screener: DVD or online link with German or English subtitles;
- a list of subtitles (in English and/or in German);
- film stills and a film trailer (as a video file and/or online link).
